Andrew Crain joined the CFA Institute in 2025 to lead the development, promotion and interpretation of the CFA Institute's Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, Asset Manager Code and related materials for EMEA and APAC audiences.

Based in London, he has over 30 years' experience in global financial markets. His previous roles include Chief Compliance Officer at large asset managers, international policy and supervision leadership roles at securities regulators and as a fixed-income trader at global investment banks. Passionate about the role firm culture plays in influencing individual behaviour, he holds a master's degree in applied finance from Macquarie University.