Ranga Makwata is a seasoned investment professional with expertise in investment analysis, management, stockbroking, and advisory services. He founded Fincent Capital, a boutique firm focused on securities trading and corporate advisory, and is a director and shareholder at Zfn Capital, a leader in economic research and financial news. He chairs Convex Capital, a Microfinance firm, and serves on the boards of Dawn Property Consultancy, the ZNCC's Macroeconomic Committee, and NUST's Finance Department Advisory Board. Ranga holds a B.Comm (Finance) Honours, an MBA from National University of Science and Technology, and a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from the University of Zimbabwe. He is also a lawyer with a strong interest in securities law and corporate transactions. A CFA charterholder, Ranga serves as President of IPAZ and Board Member of CFA Society South Africa.